The commission will be the fifth foreign mission that the Southern Comeign mission that the Southern Commercial Congress has sent abroad in the last fourteen years, including trade commissions to Europe, Pan-America and the Orient. In 1913 the Southern Commercial Congress sent the American Commission on Rural Credits to Europe, out of whose investigations and report grew the Farm Bank act, The congress has recently finished an economic and agricultural survey of the Republic of Panama. Back to Europe

The Yanks are going back! The old familiar scenes "over there" have called-and once more the "long, long trail" winds across the sea.

But this time the Yanks are going back to live on the fat of the land. There will be no reveille—no sharp commands, no "fall in" when the Yanks set sail on August 5th aboard the S. S. "President Roosevelt." The American Legion has arranged it all. The ship is one of the finest afloat. It is an American ship, too, owned by the U. S. Government and operated by the U. S. Lines. The crowd is coming fast. Only a few staterooms are left. So come, you Legionnaires, Call up or write the American Legion Weekly and find out all about it. Hear how you are going to be welcomed by the European dignitaries—how you are going to walk again through the familiar villages, and see familiar scenes. Here is the long trail. Close your eyes and picture yourself going along with the crowd-Paris, the old front line, Brussels.

The S. S. President Roosevelt sails from New York August 5th: Aug. 13-14—In Paris, entertainments; ceremonies, etc. Aug. 15-29-Open time for side trips to the battlefields, etc. Aug. 30-31—In Brussels, entertainments, ceremonies, etc.
Sept. 1 —Ostend and Flanders Battlefields.
Sept. 2 —In London, entertainments, ceremonies, etc.

Sept. 3-6 -Open time for individual excursions in England and Sept. 7 —Glasgow, Scotland.

Sept. 8-15 —Sailing back.
Sept. 16 —Quebec and Montreal, receptions, etc.

Optional Side Trips have been arranged to various battlefields, American Cemeteries, Switzerland, Italy, Monte Carlo, The Passion Play, etc. And the price has been cut to rock bottom. It includes everything first-class, steamship fare, railroad fare, hotel bills and food.

Write Today-NOW!

Send your name and address today and get full details—or call in person. You will be under no obligation. Join the Yanks in the great excursion. Now is the time. Send the coupon today. There isn't a minute to spare. For full information address either
